Role / Feedback

Magpie Comms,
Leeds
June 11' - Present

My current position at Magpie Comms is as the Marketing, Design & PR Assistant. My main responsibilities include developing creative ideas and designs to market Magpie to new and existing clients. I also design artwork for Magpies clients and assist in the Design department.

Freelance Designer at Magpie Comms
and Rare Creative

During my final year of university I freelanced alongside my studies. This included working within studios and independently on several projects, including branding, website design and illustrations.

Rare Creative,
Sheffield

"Kirsty has displayed a pro-active professional approach. She has responded well to all tasks, from high level creative to the more menial, all completed to satisfaction and with enthusiasm. She has been able to rationalise ideas at a high level. Kirsty has supported and worked alongside all members of the Rare team, including studio, account managers, digital, directors and admin, and has established herself as a valued member of the team." Bryan White, Creative Director

Exposed Magazine,
Sheffield
3 months
August 09' - Jan 10'

"Kirsty showed a great creativeness and efficiency when designing for Exposed magazine. She always gave consideration to the style and context of our magazine and worked well within deadlines. She would be an asset to any company." Steve Squibb, MD

"I can see Kirsty will have a great future in the design industry; her knowledge and wide ideas for design are at a high standard. And with her abilities and friendly professional manner she will have no problems getting a very good degree and going forward for the future. I would happily have Kirsty back at Rocca Creative in the future and would recommend Kirsty to other agencies." Kay Wilson
