

Our Employer Service Offer

INTRODUCTION

The University provides a high quality customer-focused service to all employers to seeking engage with our students to meet their business needs.

The University provides a comprehensive portfolio of services to help you raise your profile on campus, enabling you to connect with, attract and employ our students. The University of Leeds' strength comes from its combination of size, quality of students and teaching, and diversity, but we understand that can make it difficult to know where to start! This is where we can help! To help you connect with the right students and graduates for your business, we work with colleagues from across all departments of the University.

OUR OFFER

Advertising Service

You can advertise your opportunities on our online vacancy system for free which is accessible to all students and recent graduates. We can also offer guidance on targeted recruitment campaigns.

Placement and Internships

We can:

- advertise your placements and internships to students and graduates
- work with you to design new work experience programmes which benefit your organisation and support your recruitment campaign
- help you target students from subject areas of particular relevance to your business
- Create exclusive placement and internship programmes with your organisation. This can include targeted promotion, collation of applications, batch sending them to you in advance of your deadline and also assistance with interviews.

Careers Fairs

Careers fairs are the ideal opportunity to meet our students face to face and these are well attended by students from all year groups. We have a range of general and sector specific fairs across the academic year to support the promotion of your opportunities, and to enable you to meet our students and headhunt talent.

Targeted events exclusively for you

We offer bespoke events throughout the year to suit the requirements of your organisation. Hosting an event on campus will raise your profile with a specific audience who we feel would be interested in your brand, work experience opportunities and graduate roles. These events could include hosting a company presentation, delivering a skills session or creating links with the Students Union for promotional stands on campus.

Facilitate links to academic and specialist subject areas and student societies

We can help you to make contacts in academic faculties, subject areas and student societies relevant to your business needs.

Digital Marketing

We understand that your online presence is a very important part of your recruitment strategy. We can work with you to support your online campaigns across a range of social media platforms.

Sponsorship

Our sponsorship offers are tailored to enhance the profile of your organisation. You can sponsor key events, high-profile institutional awards and student societies. Our Employer Engagement Team can recommend the best option for you and your business.
