

ERASMUS+ Work - Useful Links

There are of course many, many websites that would be useful in trying to find a work placement in general, and in Europe in particular. Here are just a few that have been recommended or that we have come across.

Some advertise vacancies, some are more general about graduate-level job-hunting and individual country information.

ERASMUS LINKS

Please be aware that the Careers Centre cannot vouch for the reliability or otherwise of any of these sites (apart from the Careers Centre site), so please be wary!

Erasmus Intern – official website for the advertising of all work placements suitable for Erasmus+ work placements.

British Council Language Assistantships - How to apply to be a British Council Language Assistant (suitable for most UK undergraduates for their 3rd year, who have some AS level language skills).

GoinGlobal - For country specific information, ideas and advice.

Leonet.joeplus.org - list of internships in Europe (accessible through Google Chrome).

Global Placement - free placement search and application website.

Europe Placement - free placement search and application website.

Prospects - For country specific information, see Prospects.

Rate My Placement - To search for placements and to rate them afterwards!

Placement UK - Placement service for European students only.

Career Jet - Has a useful Careerjet Worldwide tab that lets you view information about jobs country by country.

Target Jobs - General resource for job hunting in Europe; targeted at graduates, but could provide information and ideas.

Milk Round - Careers advice with some internship vacancies.

WikiJob - For lots of general jobs advice.

Germany. Below are websites recommended by Erasmus Work students for Germany.
